Eugene Hale, of Maine, in the United States Senate, December 15 and 16, 1905, and January 15, 1906 The Senate having under consideration the bill (H. R. 480) supplemental to an act entitled An act to provide for the construction of a canal connecting the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, approved June 28, 1902, and making appropriation for isthmian canal construction, and for other purposes - Mr. Hale said: Mr. President: From my information on this subject, I think the Government was very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Shouts. I know something about him. He is a man of great executive ability. He had displayed that not only in reference to the railroad of which he was president, but in other railroad enterprises. He is a man after the order of mind of the Senator from South Carolina [Mr. Tillman]; he is courageous; he takes responsibility: he knows how to say no, and, from...
