Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Pichincha, Extracts From a Discourse: Delivered in the Chapel of Racine College, During the Week of Commencement, in July From the days of Pliny and Strabo, (A.D. 79,)to those of Sir Humphrey Davy, Von Humboldt, and Agassiz, of the present century, much learning has been displayed, and many graphic pens employed, in elucidating the arcana of Volcanoes. The profound investigations, and the elaborate experiments of savans, in relation to the orological characteristics of these phenomena, have become familiar to scholars accustomed to scientific research. But admonished by the fate of the elder Pliny, the ardor of whose philosophic mind drew him into so perilous a proximity to Vesuvius, at the period of its first disastrous eruption of which history affords us any circumstantial account, that his life was the forfeit of his peering curiosity, - very few of the devotees of science, during the last seventeen or eighteen centuries, seem to have been tempted to take the hazard of similar risks, by emboweling themselves in volcanic craters, either for the disinterested purpose of enlarging...
