It is fitting that this Democratic Club celebrate the birthday of him whose monument is the Declaration of Independence, the first Democratic President, the first Secretary of State, the constructor of the first Democratic platform, the founder of the Democratic party. Thomas Jefferson was a party man of the Democratic type. To him as a Democrat the world is a debtor for that which was a novelty in political government until his own immortal words proclaimed the doctrine that the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is inalienable, and to secure it governments are instituted deriving their just powers from the consent of governed. As a Lawgiver, the Northwestern Ordinance, framed by him, is his imperishable record. It has been, under the Constitution, a source of the greatness and power and a chief peculiarity of the American Union. It was formulated in 1784, developed in 1787, greatly perfected after the Mexican War for the government of territories theoretically under the absolute control of Congress, yet always in a condition of self-government, in order that they may fit themselves to become American States. As a Diplomatist and skillful Politician the acquisition of Louisiana places him beyond all present rivalry. To his great achievement our country owes the vast domain west of the Mississippi, now the seat of eleven prosperous States. May our...
