Wade and Dunton 275. 00 within three months. Thomas Curtis, is sufficient to satisfy the statute of frauds; and being a non-negotiable note is not presumed to have been taken in payment. Even if regarded as a note, it does not require an internal revenue stamp to be affixed to it. The U. S. statutes which prohibit the introduction of unstamped notes in evidence, apply only to courts of the United States, and has no application to state courts. In an action upon account annexed, the court may properly allow as an amendment to the declaration another count for goods bargained and sold. See Wade v. Ibsa, ante, p. 230. Exceptions by plaintiffs. Sustained. Assumpsit on account annexed and a promissory note. The case appears in the opinion. W. II. Newell and IV. B. Skelton, for plaintiffs. D. J. . McGillicuddy and F. A. Morey, for defendant. STROUT, J. The writ in this case contained two counts--one upon a promissory note and the other upon account annexed. One of the items in the account was, June 5, 1899, one hack 275. The plea was the general issue, with brief statement of the statute of frauds. Before the charge by the presiding justice, in reply to a question from him, plaintiffs attorney said he did not rely upon the count upon a promissory note, nor that the paper introduced was evidence under that count, but he did rely upon it as a memorandum in writing...
