Their hospital bracelet, the outfit they wore home from the hospital, a special blanket, sleep toy, lock of hair and other such treasures. That s not even taking into consideration the pile of papers, art projects, award certificates and ribbons and even a few crumbling salt and flour maps, right? But let s face it- there comes a time when you want to pare down the treasures you ve accumulated throughout your lifetime. This is especially true if, like me, you have a large family because a large family equals a lot of stuff! So what s a parent to do with these childhood treasures without seeming cold and unfeeling? Give them back to their original owner, that s what! Give them back in a keep-forever treasure box. Creating a keep-forever treasure box is just a fancy way of saying it is okay to sort through all those memories, keep those that are the most meaningful, pitch the rest and get them out of your house.I mean gift them to your children .It s also a whole lot fun; making your laugh, smile and even...
