Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Journal of the National Institute of Social Sciences, 1921, Vol. 7 By James G. McDonald, Chairman of the Foreign Policy Association (formerly The League of Free Nations Association) I want to tell you briefly what my impressions were of Europe as I saw it during November and December, 1920, and then in the remaining minutes which are allotted to me, to suggest to you certain things which I think we ought to do. None of these refer to our entrance into the League of Nations; not that I disavow the League of Nations, but because I believe that our entrance into the League for the present is a political impossibility. I prefer to talk about things that are politically possible. I spent three weeks of the two months I was in Europe in England. From England I went to Paris, from Paris to Cologne, then to Brussels, to Berlin; from Berlin to Dresden, from Dresden to Prague, and from Prague to Vienna, then to Geneva for the first half of the meeting of the League...

Reviews

The best book i actually go through. It can be full of wisdom and knowledge Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Prof. Greg Herzog

This composed publication is fantastic. This is certainly for all those who statte that there was not a well worth reading through. You will not truly feel monotony at whenever you want of your respective time (that's what catalogs are for regarding when you ask me).
